REGION VII TOM MAYER AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

ABOUT THE TOM MAYER AWARD

Thomas K. Mayer contributed to the well-being of children and families throughout his 35 year career, beginning with the Peace Corps in the 1960's and continuing through his retirement in 2004. Tom was a committed leader serving as the Region VII Director of the Office of Community Operations, Administration for Children and Families (ACF), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Tom's living legacy includes a commitment to all in the area of advancing early care and education and specifically to Head Start programs in the ongoing effort to achieve and maintain high-quality service delivery. During his thirty-plus years with ACF, Mr. Mayer led the development of lasting federal, state, and local partnerships that continue to serve in the expansion of children and families receiving Head Start/Early Head Start services across Region VII.

Individuals nominated for this prestigious award should have demonstrated flexibility in their career and have documented experiences across the Head Start Program. Consideration will be given to individuals who made a long-term state or regional impact, as well as those who possess key characteristics of good leadership. Leadership examples include articulating a clear vision regarding a system for early care and education, the highest degree of integrity in their representation of Head Start, and demonstrated ability to build strong relationships and partnerships that serve to further the comprehensive nature of Head Start services to children and families. In addition, the nominee should have a demonstrated compassion and commitment to future Head Start program improvement and quality on a continuing basis.

CRITERIA (30 points)

(Approx. 300 words)

- List the nominee's length of service and professional affiliations in or outside of Head Start. 15-years experience in service to children and families is required
- Demonstrate a proven influence over state/regional procedures or policies.
- Describe some specific partnerships that have been developed and how that has impacted services on the state/regional level.
- Describe the nominee's variety of experience supporting children and families.

NARRATIVE (30 points)

(Approx. 300 words)

- Describe leadership roles and qualities the nominee possesses.
- Provide examples of how the nominee personifies excellence.

LETTERS OF SUPPORT (40 points)

(one from each of the following categories)

- A Parent
- Head Start Staff
