

Q-CIT

The Quality of Caregiver-Child Interactions for Infants and Toddlers

The Quality of Caregiver-Child Interactions for Infants and Toddlers (Q-CIT) is a reliable and valid observational tool to measure the quality of interactions between infants and toddlers (birth to 36 mos.) and their caregivers in early childhood settings.

Q-CIT Observation Certification Training

Sponsored by: Kansas Head Start Association, Mathematica, Region VII Training and Technical Assistance (TTA)

When: January 31, 2022 through February 4, 2022

Where: Virtual Training via Zoom

Cost: $575.00 includes training, materials, certification testing

For an overview of the Q-CIT tool see the attached Q-CIT description and FAQ or watch the one-hour webinar prepared by Mathematica at:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0zMk9YtVNxo&t=5s>

Your Region VII TTA point of contact is available to answer questions about Q-CIT and the upcoming training opportunity.

Registration coming soon! – Watch your email for details as space is limited!